Principal's Message

This has been a momentous year in the history of our nation and community, and in the life of our school. The Korean crisis, the call to colors, controversial political and economic issues, inflation, etc., have all shaken us out of our lethargy. Another significant factor in our student-body life this past year has been the realization that this is the last year all the students in our district will be together.

Last September, I expressed the hope that this would be "Tamalpais' Big Year!" You have responded to the fullest. I am deeply grateful for your loyalty and fine spirit.

As we look forward to our new school, Sir Francis Drake, may each share to the fullest this new enthusiasm and high spirit in making both Tam and Drake the two best schools in the state.

As we look to the future, a few may say that we are now living in the worst of times. May I point out that this is the best of times as far as opportunity is concerned. Man must work together for universal peace. Each one of us must see that there is economic prosperity for all.

This is a goal within our vision and lifetime. May we continually work together to this end.

Thanks For The Memories

Well, classmates (freshmen, sophomores and juniors), faculty and all our many friends around Tam, the time has finally come for us to bid you farewell. Our four years here with you have been full of fun and learning. Each year here was completely different from the one that was to follow in its footsteps and each held many smiles and tears for us all. Without you pulling for us through our errors and achievements, we would not have been able to gain as much as we have. Thanks for helping us build the memories we now treasure.

Thanks for our freshman year when we entered as timid "scrubs" shaking in our shoes and standing in awe of the "much-to-be-admired" seniors. All the gals developed mad crushes on Steve Harper, Bo Raisch and Sherm Hall. We learned to sing "Tamalpais," found out that the "Pai" was not something to eat, searched every week in vain for our names in the "News," and tried to act like sophomores. Then our "greenie" days ended and we WERE sophomores.

Thanks for our sophomore year when we began to feel at home and regarded the frosh (that's you, juniors) with contempt. After all, weren't we sophs now! The new stop lights were put in that year and the tower clock was dedicated. We viewed the senior play, "Peg O'My Heart," went to the annual girls' dance, the "Wagon Wheel Whirl," and played in the snow at Christmas. When the year ended, we woke up to the wonderful fact that we were upperclassmen at last.

Thanks for our junior year when we were busy with all our activities. We gave the Junior Prom, enjoyed "The Man Who Came to Dinner," tinkered and fussed over our pesky new lockers, found our names in the 'News' quite often, were led by class prexies Dave Chamberlain and Matt Hazeltine, listened to "My Foolish Heart" and "The Third Man Theme," and complained bitterly when the Seniors graduated that "no one will be around next year." However, we've managed pretty well, haven's we?

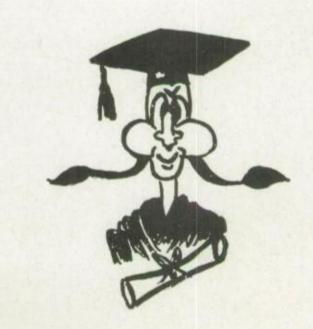

Thanks for our best-of-all year, our Senior year. This year we gave "You Can't Take It With You" and "Out of the Frying Pan" as our two senior plays, worked hard to make Tam's last year together a really "Big" one, enjoyed the company of a new principal, Mr. Harry G. Russell, and rolled in the aisles of Mead Theater when Barbara Ortman and Paul Knoles did their rendition of "Boop-boop-de-doo." Graduation time brought announcements, memory books, Senior Farewell and our Senior "Bawl" along with our big Senior Ball at the Fairmont Hotel.

Thanks for all these sparkling memories. We'll miss all of you: the "News," "Pai," senior plays, Mead Theater and last but not least, all of our fellow seniors whom we'll probably not see much of in the future.

Thank you, Tam, for your velvety lawns, your blooming flower beds, your halls crowded with people and laughter, your tall trees, your rooms where we have learned lessons in fellowship as well as "book learning." For all these little things that we'll remember, we say to all of you—Thanks for the memories!

As we, the class of 1951, read lingeringly the last chapter of our book of Tam, we stop to turn back the pages of memory to look once again at the names of those who left us before the day of graduation.

To those who are not with us because the story of their lives carried them elsewhere, to other schools, to jobs, to the battlefields, we send our warmest greetings and a promise that for you on graduation day we will look one extra time at Tam's glorious flowers, wander to your favorite rooms, march for you a little straighter to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance," and clasp for you the magic moment when our diplomas lie in our hands at last.

To those who left us, like Glen Cramer, for immortality, we can say only, your graduation day came early. No human being knows upon what day he will leave earth for heaven, but beautiful as our earth can be, we know you have found complete fulfillment.

So to all our classmates of the past, hail and farewell! Seniors not pictured: Rudy Sieker, Hal Hartz.

Jaunty Juniors

The junior class really held its own this year. It boasted the fact that a fellow member, Scott Jones, was appointed chairman of the Dance Committee. In April, under the direction of President John Hendricks, the juniors gave their annual prom, the "Cotton Ball." This year provided an extra amount of work for the juniors. Since the school will be split next year it has been up to this class to plan for the activities of both schools for the coming semester.

Girls' Association

The Girls' Association started the year under the able leadership of Prexy Pat Ferguson. With the help of officers and crew, Pat put on the Mother's Tea and the Freshman Reception.

A discovery of new talent was made when three freshmen girls from Corte Madera sang on the program. Since then, demands for repeat performances at student bodies, rallies, and dances have made them a popular trio.

Jeanne Kessey served as president for the spring semester. The big event of Jeanne's term was the annual Girls' Dance. "April in Paris" was the theme for this year.

And a huge success it was, too, when all the girls turned out in organdy and cotton, and forced their favorite beaus to wear corsages. The gym was garlanded with all types of spring blossoms for the affair. The super decorations were complete with numerous Parisian lady illustrations, outdoor cafe tables, the Eiffel Tower, and lamposts bearing the names of most of the couples at the dance.

Other officers were: (the fall term,) Vice President— Tosca Giorgi, Secretary Treasurer—Margaret Toore, and Yell Leader—Audrey Roth.

Officers for the spring term were: Vice President—Ina Flemming Secretary Treasurer—Ruth McGivney, and Yell Leader—Delia Meulenkamp.

The Horseless Monster

I opened the door on my 'Anatomically" designed car and sat down on the "Foamtex" cushions. I adjusted the "Auto Posture Control" started the car with the "Key-Turn" starter. I released the 'Feather-Touch" parking brake with a twist of my wrist. The 180-horsepower "Fire Power' engine shot the car forward over a 'rough road smoothed only by the "Oriflow" shock absorbers. I could sense the gas flowing through the "Full-Flo" fuel pump and in the "Rota-Quiet" valves. As I glanced at the "Safety-Sight" instrument panel to see how much gas I had, a sporty convertible passed. It was easy to see that the driver was jealous of my "Watch-Tower" vision.

The Cops

Then I saw through 'Sweeping Clear-Bac" rear window that a cop was after me. Knowing that the law always get their men, I stepped on the "Self-Energizing" brakes. When I stopped, out of the "High-Bridge" door. The cop showed an interest in the car. I could see that he admired the "Luxury Lounge"

The Egyptian Scarab Caper

In the last chapter of the Inkslinger's novel, we left Danial Pick-Axe in an unconscious state due to, 1. the sun beating down on the side of his head in a manner reminiscent of his mother, 2. a double harrelled hangover, due to over-indulgence in "quadruple martinis", and 3. shock at finding himself in the middle of the desert facing the sphinx (or a reasonable facsimile thereof).

Dan's last recollation is of a rather wild party, to which he and Cleopatra Pharoah had gone to evade the Cairo police. The cops were on their trail for the murder of Julius C. Anthony, Cleo's late beau. Cleo's magnificent hollowed-out scarab pin is still missing.... But wait, I think I hear Dan beginning to moan, let's read on and

It wasn't very inspiring, just sand and a pale blue sky. To the north, east, and south, naught but sand. To the west, the sphinx, of red stone. The face looked familiar, It had a lioness' body, and a woman's face. As I gazed a sudden realization came to me. The face looked just like Cleo! It wasn't a figment of my imagination. It was Cleo!! Avery pretty non-figment, incidentally.

I started to walk over to see the view to the west. I wasn't very hopeful about it. Tripping over a rather large of sand, I landed with a dull sickening thud. I was trying to regain my footing when I heard a little sound under the sand. Putting my ear to the desert floor, I distinctly heard a rushing sound. "Water!!" I cried, and started to dig; not because I needed water; not because I liked water, and not because I ever drank it, but because I, too, wanted to be like Stewart Granger.

I dug furiously in the direction of the gurgly sound, in the best Zane Grey manner. (Or was it H. Rider Haggert?) I dug, and was still being a human mole in a half-hearted sort of way, when a menacing voice at my back said, "Who are you?" I turned around without blanching, firm in the face of utmost peril. (Get that sneer off your face, you snickering idiot!!) I saw a small Englishman, with a greenish face and large, pale-blue, blood-shot eyes. He looked

Awards Committee

The Awards Committee, formed this year by the new Constitution, did its part to make this Tam's big year. Under the direction of chairmen Tito Patri in the fall and Tom O'Connell in the spring, the Awards Committee got off to a very satisfactory start as they had no precedents to follow.

The main task of the Awards Committee is to approve the list of block winners in sports which is submitted by the coaches. If the Awards Committee passes this list, it is sent to the Student Congress and Executive Committee where final action is taken.

In conjunction to this job, is the filling out of the certificates which are presented with the blocks.

Closely related to the awarding of blocks is the issuing of small felt emblems to the members of Tam's Cross-country Track team. The Awards Committee was instrumental in having the presentation of these emblems passed by Student Congress.

In addition to the above duties, the committee took care of all trophies and pennants. The outstanding senior of the June graduating class is selected by this committee, with the help of members of the faculty, according to a criterion which has been set.

For its first year in existence, the Awards Committee has really had a remarkable start.

Varsity Grid Season

Bill Hillebrand

A very fickle, hot and cold varsity eleven had their mediocre 1950 campaign cut down by Jupiter Pluvius as he dropped the curtain before the Red and Blue gridders had a chance to battle the Analy Tigers for an undisputed third place in N.B.L. standings.

In league competition the Indians scored 131 points to its opponents 60 but Petaluma, Napa and Vallejo nipped them by a total of 13 points.

Coach Ed Nordstrom's boys opened the grid season as they overpowered a lighter but enthusiastic Marin Catholic team, 20-6. Commins, Eitze, and

Matt Hazeltine

Hillebrand each scored against the Wildcats, while Hoffman added two conversions.

Tam traveled to Piedmont the next Friday and dumped the Highlanders with ease, 33-15. Jim Eitze's 95-yard sprint for 6 points set the Redmen on fire in the second period, and from this point on the Tam team was never headed.

Santa Rosa was the next victim, falling before the Indians 39-8, and Tam had thrown in their bid for the N.B.L. crown. Terrific line play stopped the Panthers cold while it opened up huge holes for the talented Indian backs.

Eitze and Billy Hillebrand each scored in the first stanza on 10 and 16-yard jaunts. In the second period the Panthers breathed hot and heavy on the Indian necks. Drives that ended on the Tam 1 and 3-yard lines bogged down under the power of the huge Mill Valley line. A pass from Hillebrand to Shurtz, a 62-yard scoot by Hillebrand, a scooped up fumble run back by Commins into the end zone, and a 2-yard dive into paydirt by Maddox accounted for the rest of Tam's glory for the evening.

The Petaluma Eggmen scrambled Tam to the tune of 13-6 as 4,000 fans saw a one man show by the name of Bill Schleth. The Trojans scored two quick ones in the first quarter and then concentrated on stopping the highly toted Tamalpais ground attack. There was one member of the Indian starting lineup missing from this game, teamwork.

The Indians were again scalped by Napa, 21-19. The Chiefs passed the Tam men silly, while Tam ran the Nuts to death. The only difference in the two teams being the points after touchdowns. Some 5,000 rabid fans will tell you the Napa Chiefs had the scare of their lives.

The Redmen bounced back the next week to rout San Rafael, 53-0, and set a Big Game scoring record. The whole Tam studentbody wanted the Bulldog hide as spirit rode high all through the week. The hapless Millermen didn't stand a chance as the Tam backs scored at will. Eitze chalked up three scores; Hillebrand, two; Commins, two; and Maddox, one. Hoffman came through with five conversions.

A champion bound Vallejo outfit dumped Tam in a closie, 18-14. The starstudded Apachie eleven was a little to much for Nordstrom's boys although the foreigners were almost knocked from their pedestal.

The Mill Valleyans surprised the experts by upsetting a strong Commerce team, 19-7. Opening up with a wide variety of pass plays, the Tam boys were never in trouble.

A date to play Analy proved to be a two-time loser so the game was cancelled.

Tam's sterling halfback, Bill Hillebrand, and star end Paul Knoles, ended the season in grand style by being selected on the all N.B.L. football team.

Rambler Football

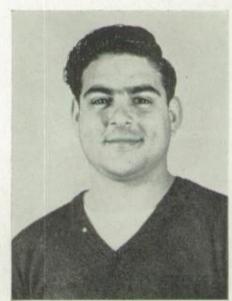

Joel Cooper

Coached for the first time by Mr. John Wilbert, the Ramblers came through the non-league season with a respectable 2-2 record. Co-captains of the team were Joel and Jerrel Cooper.

In the first game of the year, the Ramblers beat the snarling Tomales Wolfs 14-7. In that game Jerrel Cooper scored the Indians first touchdown, while reliable Jim De Witt came through with a 47-yard romp for the last one.

Against Petaluma the Ramblers didn't fare quite so well, and had to settle for a 21-0 whacking. The Egg-men's size and playing know-how was just too much for the little warriors.

In the traditional San Rafael game the Ramblers made pigs of themselves as they ate Bulldog stew to the tune of 30-0. Roy Albertini started the score rolling in the first quarter when he scored on a fifteen yard sweep around left end. Following Ray's TD, Jim De Witt scored the first of his three sixpointers. The evening's scoring was rounded after Jerrel Cooper blocked a S.R. punt and Danny Caldwell recovered and dashed 35 long yards to paydirt.

The last game of the year found the Ramblers losing miserably 26-0 to the Vallejo Apache-Babes. The Ramblers weren't to be denide until the last gun, as they were in there fighting every minute of the contest.

Fullback Jim Eitze is shown going over for 6 of the 53 points scored against San Rafael in the Big Game, while Dick Rush (12) keeps his eye on scat-back Bill Fink of the Bulldogs just in case.

Bill Hillebrand looks like he's in quite a bit of trouble here in the second quarter of the Vallejo game. The Indians lost to their northern neighbors by the slim score of 18-14 although they put on a last minute rally which just about turned the tide.

Jootball.

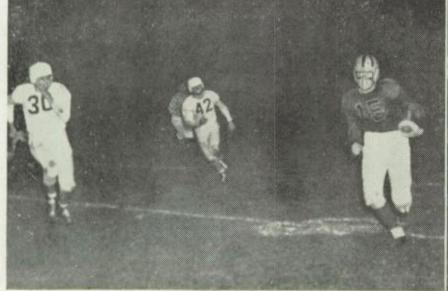

It looks as though the ball carrier, Tam's student body prexy, is just about down and out for the count, but his blockers, Bob Beedle (40), and Jim Bennison (18), enabled him to go all the way for a score.

While Bill Hillebrand's taking care of one of Vallejo's fleet ball carriers, Matt Hazeltine is shown in the background getting himself tripped over by one of the officials. Vallejo with its speedy, wide end runs went on to take the contest by the slim score of 18-14.

Snaps

In the Piedmont battle, the Indians were out for revenge because of their defeat at the hands of the Highlanders in 1949. This is Bill Hillebrand taking a little of that revenge during the climax of the contest.

In the Indians first league game with Santa Rosa, here's Bill Hillebrand showing the running form that made him the most valuable backfield player of the N.B.L. Bill made a gain of about 30 yards on this play.

Cross Country

Kerry Fitzgerald

Tam's newly formed cross-country team went through the season with only two losses, as against six wins. In achieving this fine record, Coach Benny's runners had to beat the finest that San Francisco and the Bay Area could offer.

The climax of the year came on December 8 when the city champions, Lowell, and Tamalpais met in Golden Gate Park. Lowell had earlier in the season beaten the Indians 18-37, and the dopesters had picked the highly improved Indians to be a close second. It was close all the way, and only the superb running of Kerry Fitzgerald, Lynn Ludlow, Ray Lewis, Carl Rissman and Conrad Ludlow gave the Indians a one-point 27-28 victory.

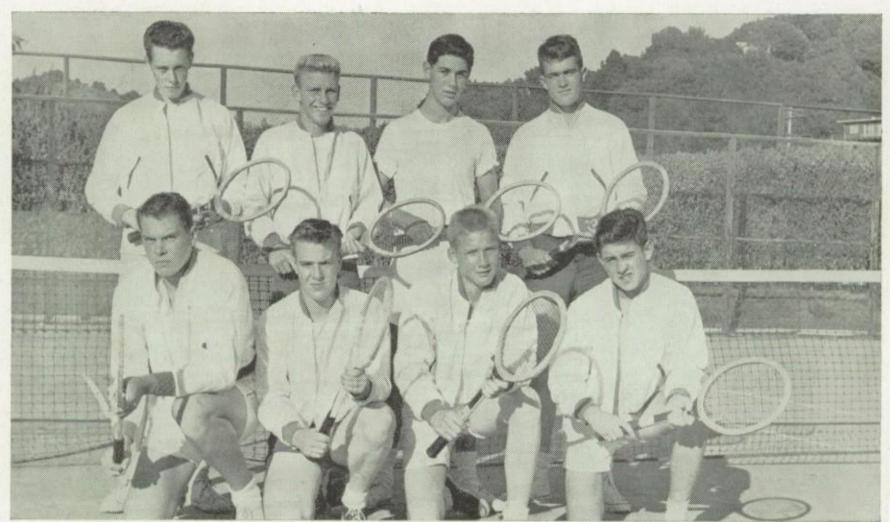

For those of you who have forgotten, or never knew, here is how the unorthodox scoring is done in cross country: The first man to cross the finish line receives one point; the second man gets two and so on. Then by adding the first five numbers, or places, from each team you obtain the score. The team with the LOWEST score wins.

Standout preformer of the team was Capt. Kerry Fitzgerald, who set the seasons record of 9:54 in Golden Gate Park. Other boys who were prominent in the Indian victories were Ron Lewis, and Rick Baldwin. It would be very interesting indeed if the NBL were to start cross-country running. The sport itself is not one of individuality, but without five good men no team is going to win. Possibly very soon in the future there will be more NBL activity in sports of this type.

Fall Tennis

The tennis team completed an excellent season under the able coaching of coach Clarence Jones, taking the North Bay League Championship with no losses for both seasons.

In the fall, the team was led by captain Rudy Sieker. The netsters played six matches, four league and two practice. In the practice matches, Napa was taken 5-0 as was San Rafael by the same score. In league play, Petaluma, Santa Rosa, and Napa all met defeat by scores of 4-1. The last match of the fall season was played against San Rafael, which tasted defeat 5-0.

Mike McCone held down the first singles position, Jerry Long, the second, and LeVant Yeager, the third. The first doubles team was composed of Milton Haine and Rudy Sieker; the second, of Dave Zec and Leigh Clark. In the spring season, thirteen matches were played, all won, and the racket swingers were again crowned League champs. A double-round-robin schedule was followed in league play. The team also played three practice matches. In the practice matches, Santa Rosa Junior College lost 5-2, Mount Diablo High 6-0, and Saint Ignatius 6-1. In League play Santa Rosa 4-1, 4-1; and San Rafael 3-2, 4-1.

Comprising the spring team were: Mike McCone, first singles; LeVant Yeager, second singles; and Leigh Clark, third singles. The first doubles team was composed of Jerry Long and Milton Haine and the second of some combination of the following three players: Bruce Rossman, Nick Fittinghoff, or Mike Stefani. The first three singles finished the season undefeated. Mike McCone won the first singles championship for both seasons and represented the North Bay League in the North Coast Section. Jerry Long and Milton Haine took the N.B.L. championship in the first doubles for the spring and also represented the league in the N.C.S.

'C' Basketball Team

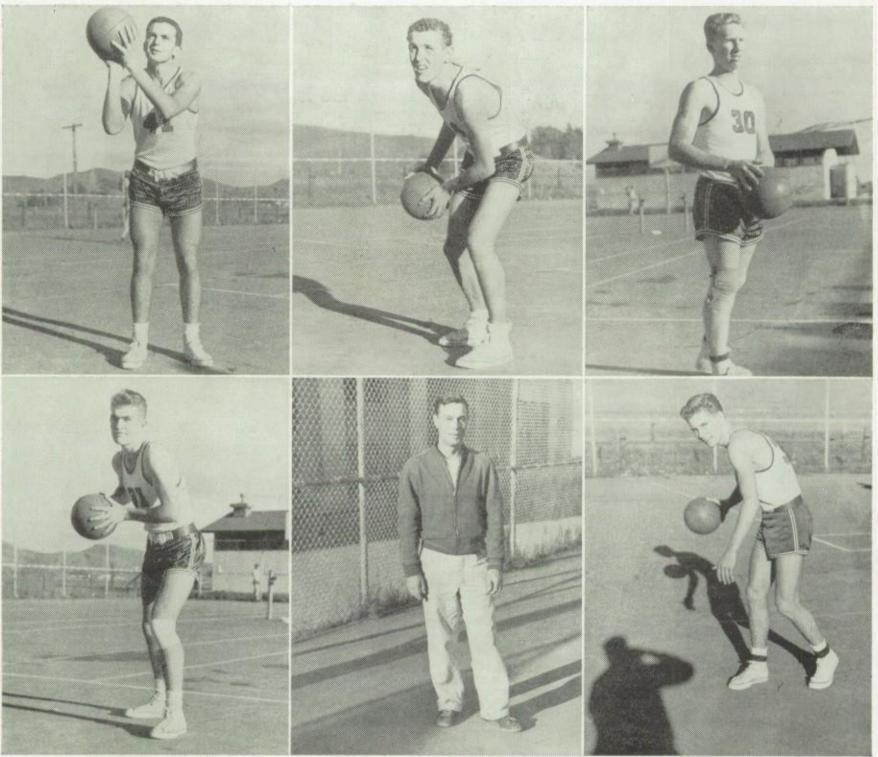

Billy Thomas

The little Indians, although having a not too successful practice season, finally came out in the open and won the C championship for the second straight season. During the early part of the season, the "C's" won only 1 of their 7 practice encounters. Coach George Gustafson really had his work cut out for him as he had only two returning veterans from the 1949 championship team. They were Billy Thomas and Alvin Moss, both of whom played great basketball and aided the C's in grabbing their second straight championship. Alvin Moss who tied last year's captain Jerry Davis's record of 19 points in a single game and broke his seasonal record of 55 points with 56 for the 4 league games was probably the biggest headache that any opposing coach ever had. Coach Gustafson usually went with the starting lineup of Harry Abras, Otis Gaines at forwards; Alvin Moss at center; captain Billy Thomas and Arnold Beaulieu at guards. Others that usually saw quite a bit of action were Robert Yim, Ross Gaussion, Earl White, Jerry Kuskie, Eddie McGillicuddy.

For the D's, which were coached by George Hall and Chuck Grasso, it was just about the same story except that there were very few games with league schools. Quite a few of the boys played quite a bit with the C's. Coaches Hall and Grasso usually started Warren Levin, Jack Perry at forwards; Ron Cutler at center; Paul Chastain, Ken Homan at guards. Others seeing a lot of action were Willy Times, Dick Walenta, Leslie Crawford, and John Tracy.

'50-'51 Varsity Hoopsters

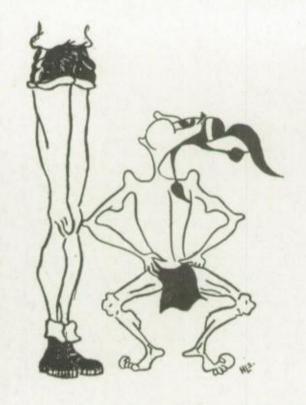

The Tam basketballers wound up second-best in the league as they went through another successful season. The Indian's almost perfect 5-1 record, was marred only by the 56-53 loss they suffered at the hands of the Vallejo Apaches.

Playing in what many call, "One of the strongest leagues in northern California," Coach Gus's boys were a top contender for the pennant right up until the final gun. Aided by the superb playing of such boys as Floyd White, John Hendricks, George Hall and Tor Hansen, the Indians played their finest game of the season against the powerful Vallejans, but it just wasn't enough.

Right from the start of the season it was conceded, by many, that Vallejo would take the league—and without any trouble. Whereas the Indians were defeating their NBL rivals by only 1 to 15 points, the Apaches didn't know the meaning of winning by less than 20; that is till they met Tam.

The Indians started the season on a good note by decisively beating off the Santa Rosa Panthers 50-43. The Panther contest was much closer than the score would indicate, as Santa Rosa's George Giester started a one-man attack rolling in the fourth quarter. Only an air-tight defense, set up in the final minutes, kept the Indian victory from being a loss.

The Petaluma game was hardly a workout for Coach Gus's charges, as his first three strings won 37-27 over a "rugged" Trojan team. The Analy Tigers also fell victim to the Indians' sharp hatchet, as Tam won 53-44.

Napa, with their standout Mel Boybosa, almost ruined the works in a too-close 35-34 heart-tearer. With Boybosa getting the re-bounds and Jim Thompson hitting the bucket, the Napanese almost pulled the upset of the season.

In the traditional Big Game, the Indians left little to be decided when they whacked the Bulldogs 48-31. Then of course the axe fell in the Vallejo game which Tam lost 56-53.

The league fathers had little trouble picking the annual All-Stars for their mythical dream team. In one forward position it was Jim Davis of Vallejo. (It was mainly the fine eye and rebound work of Davis that beat Tam.) Holding down the other forward slot was Floyd White of the Indians. At center, and a unanimous choice, was Vallejo's all-everything—Jack Von Morgan. The guards, were Tam's George Hall and Santa Rosa's Ron Morgan.

Heading the list of the team's scorers was Floyd White with a commandable 359 points, or a 15.6 pt. season average. Following Floyd in the scoring department were: John Hendricks 199; Tor Hansen 140; George Hall 136; Mike McCone 44; Jerry Long 15; Tom O'Connell 13; Keith Sanford 11; Scott Jones. Graham Morey, Matt Hazeltine 10; Don Philips 6; Don Geddes 5; Bob Peters 2 points.

Coach Jack Baat's 'B' basketballers finished a fair cage season with an even record of 8 wins and 8 losses, but the Paposses outscored their opponents with a total of 507 points to the 487 digets scored against them.

The Tam team tied for third place in their six team league with two wins and three losses. In league debut, the lil' Injuns dropped a low scoring affair, 24-19, to Santa Rosa on the Panthers court. The Baatmen then bounced back to defeat a good Analy squad, 38-25, and on the following Friday traveled to Petaluma to edge the league leading Trojans, 33-29, paced by Jerry Davis' 14 point outburst.

Gene McGillicuddy In the big-little game against San Rafael, the Bulldogs pulled to a commanding half time lead and went on to win easily, 35-30. Big Tom Beyers from the Bulldog team was to much for the Tamites as he potted 15 points from his pivot position, while Davis and Gene McGillicuddy scored 14 and 10 points respectively for the Red & Blue. Next came the Vallejo game and all the Tam boys were out to upset the league leaders. Tam held a slim 18-16 half time lead and still they were ahead by one point, 25-24, at the end of the third quarter. As the final buzzer sounded it was all tied up at 30-30, and a championship was to be decided during the overtime. The Apaches are now wearing gold balls.

Leading the Lightweight scoring was deadly Jerry Davis with 147 points and a 9.2 game average, followed closely by Gene McGillicuddy with 110 points and a 6.7 average. Rounding out the usual starting lineup were John Hurt, 63 points, Leevorn Suggs, 40 points and Claude Johnston, 39 points. Other boys who saw a lot of action were Rudy Sieker, Gary Green, Roy Petri, Alan Anderson, Whitey MacWilliams and Gene Cramer.

Frosh-Soph Basketball

Dick Forster

The Tamalpais Frosh-Soph basketball team made its second season under Coach George Corson a successful one, winding up with a ten-win fiveloss record, including two victories over the rivals from across county, the San Rafael Bulldogs.

Coach Corson's 1951 edition started the season as if it was going to duplicate the 1950 team's feat of going undefeated, a rarity in basketball, by copping the first four games. In the fifth game of the season, though, they ran up against a sharp-shooting quintet from Washington High, which handed them their first loss of the season. The Braves avenged this defeat later in the season by drubbing the Eaglets. The Braves went on after their first defeat to cop six out of the remaining ten games.

Coach Corson's boys showed that they had plenty of grit and fighting spirit by coming from behind more than once in the closing minutes to turn what had appeared to be certain defeat into a victory. In the Lowell game the Braves scored 33 points in the final stanza, setting a school record that will probably never be broken.

The Braves' quintet was paced in scoring by forward John Campbell and center Walt Langford. Campbell garnered 169 points over the 14-game schedule to top all scorers, while Langford was a close second with 132.

Special mention is due to guard and playmaker Joe Harvey. Joe played very good ball all season and was the steadying influence.

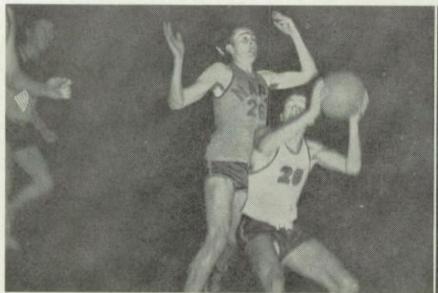

Up, up, up and in goes the old basketball as John Hendricks was all alone on this stylish lay-in. In the background, a San Rafael employed referee was too late to block the shot.

Basketball

Snarling Mel Boybosa, of Napa, (26) does an authentic two-step to avoid hitting Floyd White (26) who has just taken a rebound off the backboards. The game, which was held on the Tam courts, saw the Indians winning 35-34.

Ballet at its best was brought forth by this versatile duo during the Tam-Napa contest. Out of sight, but going into the basket, is the ball that towering Tor Hansen has just fired with a hook-shot. Coming up for a possible rebound is Indian forward John Hendricks (30).

It's that man again! Floyd White kangaroos above the Analy opposition for a neat two points. Flexing his muscles is Analy's Dick Ament (22) while Tor (the profile) Hanson (34) does a serious fake.

One of the rare times that Analy rooters had a chance to yell was when Dick Ament (22) sank one for the hapless Tigers. Tam won 53-34. Having no chance to rebound was Scott Jones (6) and an unidentified Tam player (34).

Varsity Baseball

The Tam Indians, with 3 games still left to play before they conclude their current season, are now situated in fourth place ofter a mediocre and hapless. season.

Up to this date the team has played a total of 23 games. 14 of these have been practice and 9 have been in league competition. The practice season ended up with a 5 won, 6 lost, and 1 tie record. The Indians opened their season by traveling to San Francisco and dropping a 5-1 contest to George Washington. The team then downed Lincoln in the initial game at the Mill Valley diamond, 4-1. With little practice because of rain, the Indians met and decisioned Lowell, 5-1. Tam lost its second encounter with Washington by the score of 4-2. Then the team bounced back with a 4-run eighth to defeat Balboa 7-4. Tam was slapped down by Commerce, as Nick Ford threw a 1-hit masterpiece to win 7-0. The Indians bounced back to take Lowell 7-4, with a big fifth inning. The following day Balboa decisioned the locals, 2-1, as Don Nance threw against Flores and Quiniones, with each team getting but 2 hits apiece. The week after vacation, Tam tied Marin Catholic, 6-6, in the only meeting between the two. The Indians lost to Sacred Heart 4-3 and 8-6, on two consecutive days. Tam finally looked like a ball club in the final game of the practice season as it defeated Galileo, 9-4.

In the league play, Tam started fast by downing Analy twice, 5-4 and 10-3 Rich Corwin took the first game and Don Nance won the aftermath. The Indians then lost two to Napa, 5-4 and 2-0. Jones pitched a 2-hit shutout in the second game. Tam split with Vallejo as it dropped the first 4-3 and took the second 4-1. Doug Hoffman, with the help of a 4-run second, set down the Apaches in the second encounter. The Indians lost the next two to Santa Rosa, 9-5 and 6-0. The team took the first game with Petaluma 5-3 with a big sixth inning. Tam then drew its league bye. On Tuesday Tam entertained Tomales and drew 1-1. Tam used 24 men. The following Friday Tam traveled to Palo Alto to play the Stanford Frosh. The Indians lost to a former Tam chucker, Phil Page, 6-1. Joe Miller played left field for the frosh.

Reserve Baseball

Ray Albertini

The suprisingly strong reserve base-ballers completed an average season with 7 wins, 8 losses and 1 tie, under the eagle eye of Coach Ed Nordstrom. The reserves played all San Francisco schools in their 16 game schedule with the exception of a split series against San Rafael.

After winning three out of their first four outings, the Tam nine went on the skids and lost four straight games to Balboa, Marina Jr. High, Sacred Heart, and Galileo. They then tied Washington, 7-7 and split a series with San Rafael and Sacred Heart, winning the opener 13-0 and losing the next day to the Irish, 9-5. Then Ed's men won three in a row over Washington, 10-9, Santa Rosa, 8-2 and again Washington, 9-8. In the last game of the year, the Indians lost a close game, which was highly disputed, to the Bulldogs, 8-6.

The purpose of the reserve baseball team is to prepare the boys, mostly lower classmen, for varsity competition. Because the reserve's season closed before the Varsity's, some of the outstanding players joined the unlimiteds and aided in important relief roles.

First row: Robert Dunphy, William Caspar, George Pedroni, Arthur Donati, Warren Levin, Ronald Madden, Capt. Jerry Kuskie, Robert Sapp.

Frosh-Soph Baseball

Under the guidance of Coach Jack Baat the Frosh-Soph baseballers had a good season as they won four games, lost one, and tied one. During the season the Frosh-Soph played junior high schools of San Francisco and local grammar schools.

Coach Baat feels that his boys will make good material for next year's varsity and reserve teams, here and at Drake. Some of the outstanding boys on the team were Larry Astley, George Pedroni, and Jim Harrol as chuckers; Tom Orovich and Marvin Brown, catchers; Jerry Kuskie, shortstop. The captain of the team was Jerry Kuskie, who was an important cog in the machine.

The one disappointing thing about the team was that it usually played before empty stands; but even without much student body support, the boys had a good season.

The baseballers played Marina Junior High of San Francisco twice during the season and had completely opposite results. In the first game Marina scored ten runs to Tam's one for the only Frosh-Soph loss of the season. In the second game the Indians reversed the scores.

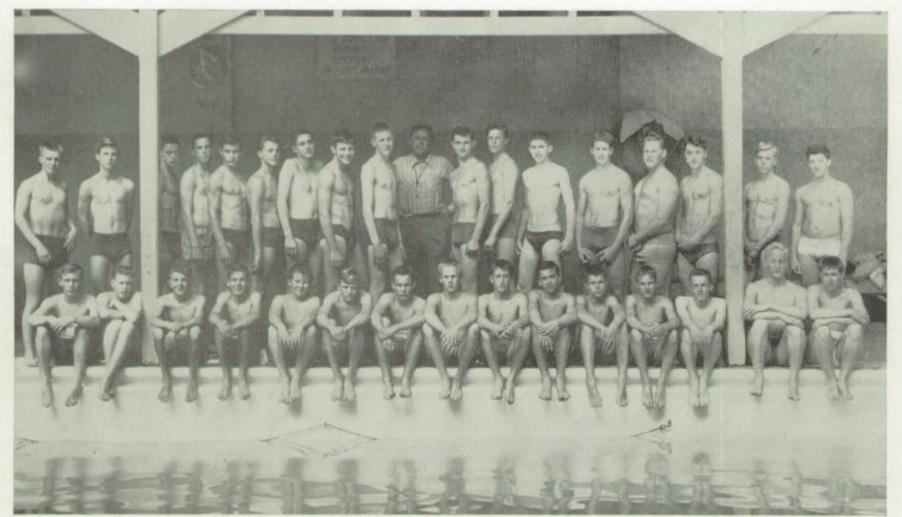

The team beat Park grammar school of Mill Valley twice by scores of 7-8 and 7-0. In the game with Old Mill, another Mill Valley grammar school, the Indians scored nine times to down the opponents 9-2.

In the Marin Catholic game the lowerclassmen banged out a 10-10 tie over the Wildcats.

There was no Frosh-Soph baseball league this year because some N.B.L. schools do not have a large enough student body to field the extra team, but if there was a league, the Indians would have done very well.

Swimming

"Butch" Hallinan

Under the able coaching of Paul Daly, both Varsity and Lightweight teams can boast of a highly successful season, climaxed by the winning of the N. B. L. pennants in both divisions. The varsity, out of a scheduled 12 meets, lost but three to such powerful teams as Berkeley, Lowell, and the California Freshmen. For the first time in seven years the noted Olympic Club team of San Francisco bowed to defeat by Tam, 45 to 29.

Indian swimmers for the varsity were: Roger Muldavin, who swam the 50 and 100 freestyle, and anchored the 200-yd. relay. He saved the relay and the team in sensational wins more than once. Closely following him were speedy freestylers Warren McGowan and Bill Cole. Fred Kett, rated amongst the best in Northern Carifornia, swam the 100-yd. breaststroke and was close to being undefeated, pushed constantly by Charles Dickens, who nabbed the seconds.

Beckford Young

The 100-yd. backstroke was almost consistently won by Clark Muldavin, who was followed by veteran Jim Heltsley. Beckford Young, varsity captain, swam individual medley and either Dickens or Heltsley got seconds. Charles Brussolo rated as top 200-yd. freestyler. Bob Sloan was ace diver. The Medley Relay was composed of Fred Kett, Clark Muldavin, and Dean Jennings, and Dan Caldwell.

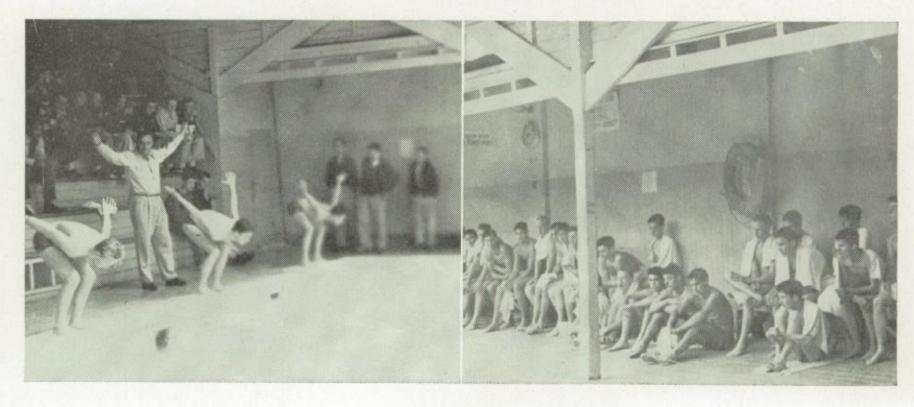

On the "B" team, the outstanding swimmers were Captain Butch Hallinan, tops in most anything; Ted Tyson and Tom Decker in the freestyle events; Kayo Hallinan, Ken Croker, and Loren Terzich in breaststroke; and Dick Lawe as backstroker.

Although they shaped up as one of the strongest dual meet teams in the league, the thinclads found tough sledding in the larger events, particulary in the sub-league and NBL finals. No brilliant individual stars, and lack of enough strong trackmen to make up the difference was the principal cause for their losses.

The team was well-balanced, and established a good dual meet record, being undefeated in league competition. They dropped two two-way meets, their first one to Richmond, eventual ACAL champs, the other to

Bob Beedle

Tam's College of Marin alumni, 59-54.

Then in rapid succession, they disposed of Napa, 65-38; Petaluma, 68-35; and Vallejo, 6834-4414.

At the sub-league meet, which was held at Tam, Vallejo squeezed by the Indians, 50½ to 49¾. Tam qualified twelve athletics for the league meet, which was held at Petaluma. This small group had their hopes for a second place behind Santa Rosa rudely shattered when Chuck Walker, hurdler, and Jim Glessner, high-jumper, were injured in an automobile accident.

With Tam taking two firsts, co-captain Bill Maddox in the century, and co-captain Bob Beedle's 49' 9" heave in the shot, Tam scored 35 points, placing third behind Santa Rosa's 81 points and Vallejo's 45. In the sub-NCS meet, Tam finally had revenge, taking second behind Santa Rosa and dropping Vallejo by three points.

Those who placed in the sub-NCS and the NBL meets were: Bill Maddox, Bob Beedle, Ray Lewis, Kerry Fitzgerald, Lynn Ludlow, Walt Langford, Larry Shipton, and Bill Whidden.

Benny Randolph

The 'B' tracksters had a fairly successful season, although they were severely handicapped at the outset by the loss of most of their '50 champs to the varsity. The team was characterized by hard-working trackmen, with a definite lack of flashy stars.

Although a green team, the 'B's' won most of their dual meets, losing only to Richmond and Petaluma. They reached the peak of their performance in the County Meet, in which they scored 47 points to their nearest opponent's 28. They also swept through the subleague meet at Tam, but fell behind

Alan Anderson

Santa Rosa's superior experience in the league meet, bringing home the second place pennant.

Among the men that improved consistently during the season were cocaptain Alan Anderson, in the 660, and Willy Woods, in the pole vault. Tony Bailey, sprinter, would have placed far better in the league had it not been for Martin Morales, a Vallejo record-breaker.

The 1320 saw every week a different winner. Paul Chastain, Ron Lewis, and David (Anonymous) Jones never finished in the same order, and one never beat the other more than twice in a row.

Other consistent scorers were Earl White, Fred Funk, Ed Brown, Bill Stiveson, Charlie Hong, Al Cannon, Conrad Ludlow, Bill Shotwell, Richard Andino, and Steve Harper.

Again last year, as in the previous four, the Tam duffers captured the North Bay League Crown and it looks as if they will do it again this year.

As of the middle of May, the golfers, under the coaching of Bob Brooks, had lost their annual faculty match and had won two of their League matches, with one to go.

The team was dropped 4-3 by the "old men" but the boys didn't feel badly as Don Whitney, in the number one position, shot an amazing 31 in his match with Mr. Harold Allison—two under par for the nine-hole course. In golfing circles, to put it mildly, that's terrific!

In the first official match of the season, with Petaluma, the Tamites took the Eggmen 3-2. Don Whitney again starred by coming through with three birdies and a win after having had a motorcycle accident just a few days before the match. Santa Rosa, the second opponent, was also beaten 3-2. With the team score tied, Jerry Swan and his Panther adversary were even up on the 17th hole. Swan teed off on the 18th hole and drove into the rough. The Santa Rosa man then drove down the middle; Jerry came out of the rough on his second stroke and landed on the green. The Santa Rosan made the green on his second shot and two-putted to par the hole. Swan then sank a beautiful twenty-foot putt for a birdie and the match.

The third and last match of the season was played against Napa, there.

As of this writing, the results were not available.

The G.A.A. Calendar has been a full one in 1951. The freshmen really got things going in grand style. This was followed by three playdays, a beach party and two gala Award dinners. These activities were enjoyed by all girls who participated in after school sports.

Leaders elected by approximately 185 members were for the Fall: Jeanne Kessey, president; Patricia Baat, vice president; Gwen Cummings sect. treasure; Peggy Mansfield, recording secretary; and Janice Julian, yell leader. The Spring leadership was given to Audreylee Roth, pres.; Gwen Cummings, vice pres.; Victoria Foster, sect. treasurer; Joy Jaegeling, recording secretary and Salli Gross, yell leader. These girls with the aid of Mrs. Evelyn Leedy, the G.A.A. advisor, and the cooperation of all members enjoyed one of its most successful years.

Sports offered were: inter-class and ballet swimming, tumbling, hiking, archery, bowling and tennis. The Spring semester brought basketball, softball, volleyball, folk dancing. Yes, indeed, a real years work!
